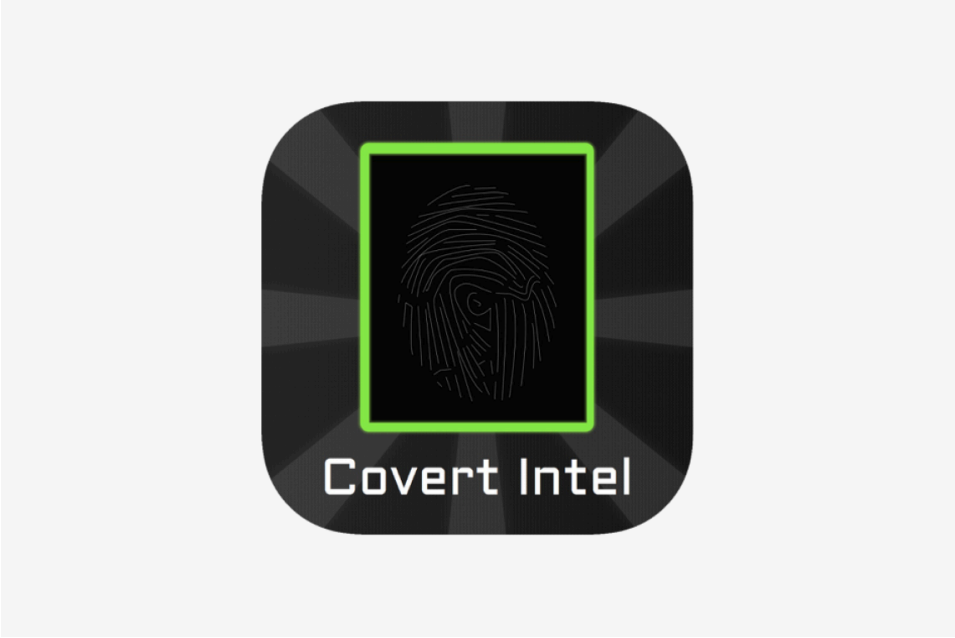
COVERT INTEL: Iran Preparing for U.S. Tactical Nuclear Strike

HAL TURNER | WORLD | JULY 15, 2026 | HITS: 11440



This content is for Subscribers Only --

Iran Army General Yahya Rahim Safavi and others are assessing the likelihood of a nuclear strike against Iran; specifically Pickaxe Mountain.

The General told his colleagues "this would be the most illogical decision." Then, he outlined why:

- The area of Iran is approximately 1.6 million square kilometers.
- A significant portion of the country's territory is desert

EN

- A tactical nuclear strike would undoubtedly inflict serious and tragic damage on Iran, resulting in numerous casualties.
- Despite this, a tactical nuclear strike would not destroy Iran, and the size of its territory would allow the country to survive.

The General and his colleagues then discussed what Iran would do in response. He said:

"In response, we will launch direct strikes at the Dimona nuclear facility and other Israeli nuclear centers."

His logic was cold reality. He made clear "For a country as small as Israel, this would result in a much more devastating collapse."

As the meeting ended, General Safavi lamented "The choice is up to the United States."

So while the rest of the world is looking at the ongoing hostilities as just another conflict, the Iranians are already talking about, and planning for, a US Tactical Nuclear Strike upon Iran!

So if Iran would hit the Dimona nuclear facility and other Israeli nuclear centers I say it's well worth it! Let's rid the earth of this 'Greater Israel' Zionist agenda once and for all!

Yes! Iran has no choice. They are being logical about this. They know Israel is the cause of this war, the Gaza genocide and the war with Lebanon.

EN

I don't blame them a bit.

Is there any way to know if China has or hasn't delivered nukes to Iran already ? Is Iran so poor that they can't afford to buy nuclear weapons from whom ever they choose ?? The world Governments are foolish to not consider this possibility.

Israel may preemptively resort to their Samson option, if that is more than a myth, before Iran can take out the Israeli nukes. If that be the case, many more countries than Iran will be struck. This is certainly edging ever closer to a hair trigger scenario.

Quoting Not Sure:

> There'd be evidence of that which is observable by state powers and non-state powers. We'd have heard about it imo.

We won't need the news to tell us when we are in proximity, won't be much warning if any, but you will just know. Don't believe the lies afterward if you survive it, and watch out for the damn drones. A ready shotgun is going to be a handy thing. A good first aid kit with some real pain killer, and sutures, and a tourniquet or two on your person, a good knife, and wolf repellant of high caliber. I wish you well. Roger.

The United States is the ONLY country that has ever used nuclear weapons in war, and all those they have already used were dropped on civilian cities.

It appears that the US has ALREADY DETONATED a tactical nuke in Iran. The size of the mushroom cloud and the intensity of the blast wave shown in the video indicate NUKE.

Daniel 7:5 says that the bear will fully arise and devour much flesh after it has 3 ribs in its mouth between its teeth.

Soon the bear will have conquered 3 oblasts in former Ukraine called Luhansk, Donetsk, and Zaporizzhia. I suspect these 3 oblasts may be the 3 ribs in the mouth of the bear between its teeth. If so, then the bear will fully arise soon after taking all the territory of these 3 oblasts.

Meanwhile, Russia has its new Oreshnik missile in serial production. These missiles will be needed to neutralize Europe's NATO.

Russia is building these missiles as fast as they can. Sometimes they test a few on Ukrainian targets to make sure they are doing what they are designed to do.

Someday Russia will have its full quiver of Oreshniks and will have taken all the territory of the 3 oblasts of Luhansk, Donetsk, and Zaporizhzhia.

When that day comes, the day the bear fully arises will be very close.

Oh, gee, no worries then eh? If its up to the United States in its clusterfuck state, Iran has nothing to worry about.
Remember the wife of of the rancher in the movie "The Day After"?
she didn't know it then, but that actress captured the essence of the whole damn thing in a nutshell. Her wail echos the future of us all.
I can relate to the rancher, I have chores to do today, and am running out of time.
We are aren't we Hal? Thanks.

If America attacks Iran's infrastructure and it responds in kind then:-

The Gulf States will be inhabitable and millions will have to move or die.

If America uses a tactical NUCLEAR WEAPON; then all of humanity is in DANGER. Once the nuclear threshold is breached it could escalate very quickly to all out NUCLEAR WAR!

This is serious: the situation is rapidly deteriorating into full blown conflict or WAR!

THIS IS RIDICULOUS !!

Why doesn't IRAN prepare to launch a tactical nuke on TRUMPS effing HEAD ? Netanyahu ?
Btw Trump apparently slipped this week and said he nuked Iran ?? Say what ?

Are they sitting ducks ?

If they or a proxy does not step in and STOP this....
Then its clear they're all working from a globalist script. Period

Deagle Agenda Wipe 90% of the humans off earth

I'm looking at the article and the excellent comments below. The seriousness of this possibility and its ramifications cannot be overstated.

Trump's collapsing approval ratings (and 59% DISapproval), his ego, his grandiose man-of-action preferences, the agendas of those surrounding him, the background financial dilemmas, building domestic unrest regarding the headlong AI buildout, the growing feeling he HAS to be having that he is trapped, and other factors, make this scenario all too likely.

John Paul Jackson, who had a prophetic ministry, stated that Israel would strike Iran with a nuclear weapon.

While he passed in 2015, many of his statements are coming true now after his death.

A little long, but Very worth while.
So far, all of the have been correct.

This issue punctuates the huge changes that have happpened to America.
First question was: Is money safe in US banks or will it be frozen if the government doesn't like something?
That question was answered when the US froze Iranian and Russian assets.
Second question was: Will the US attack a country if instructed to do so by Israel?

EN

That question has been answered several times most recently with Iran.
Third question: Will the US use its nuclear weapons to attack a country to change its policies?
That would be a BIG change from the concept that American nuclear weapons are only for defense.
Would Russia follow, would Pakistan follow? Israel? Turkey?
Will nukes become simply weapons of convenience?
The results of such an action are unimaginable.

Theatricality & Deception... lethal weapons used by the initiated elite-cabal, on the uninitiated DEAF, DUMB & BLIND stupefied masses...

ORDO AB CHAO = Order from Chaos
- ORDER is another word for CONTROL as in Control from Chaos

EXITUS ACTA PROBAT = Outcome Justifies the Deed
- The above phrase is carved on the Arch of Washington in NYC
- under the swords of Islam

The Trump character's role in this wicked menagerie is to usher in the greatest horror this realm has ever seen, nor will ever be seen again

The hour draws near for the evil government & corporate puppets of the elite cabal to activate their planned False Flag "Mass Casualty Event" and/or "High Profile Assassination Event" This carefully planned "False Flag Event" will justify their blood lust for war... war is not the goal, the war is simply a necessary step in order to set in motion the elites real objective... a TOTAL GLOBAL RESET

These looming events will bring about the WEF GLOBAL RESET/Agenda 2030... we are witnessing the greatest theft of global wealth ever in history... be it market manipulation (stocks, metals, commodities, currencies, bonds, etc), insider trading, digital pirates fleecing the simple minded and elderly, while CORPORATIONS & GOVERNMENTS CONSPIRING TOGETHER on a massive scale to optimize their power-base, their wealth position, their social status, their grip of control, etc

The elite/cabal will achieve this objective BY EXHAUSTING GLOBAL/LOCAL RESOURCES... (energy-fuel, food, water, medical, etc) meaning... EVERYTHING... EVERYWHERE ALL AT ONCE... will become scarce and/or incredibly expensive to acquire

Time is running out... get your mind, your heart and your soul "right" with the LORD GOD... you may not get another chance to repent and be healed.

if I can add to my earlier comment for days since fighting resumed expert or so called experts retired generals, admirals, colonels etc have said realistically the only way to breach Picaxe is to use a tactical nuke. The question also to be asked what kind of tactical nuke because the B61-12 free fall bomb is considered a tactical nuke but at 50kilotons its 2.5 times the strength if Hiroshima that wiped out an entire city....

I've been writing on here for months that their plan is to normalize nuclear weapons by nuking Iran, and that the Empire is going to sink the Lincoln.

It all in ipetgoatii on YouTube, along with the fake Trump assassinations, posted over 12 years ago.
